Kudos Kitchen Capers! It's Team Work!

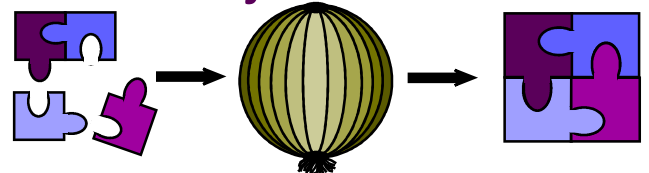

Based in a working kitchen, this practical activity is designed around learning to work more effectively as a team.

Teams will be required to engage in a cookery challenge to be completed within a given timescale.

Leading & Developing High Performance Incorp. Cookery Team Challenge

It's not just an Onion!

A prestigious kitchen provides the perfect environment for this 'cooking meets workplace' challenge. Introducing Leading & Developing High Performance, this memorable, impactful day will engage teams in a cookery challenge that has to be completed within a set timescale.

What's included for both Challenges

- ▶ Pre event consultation to agree business and learning objectives
- ▶ Provision of the venue, ingredients and an expert chef to work with your team
- ▶ Design of the activities
- ▶ Facilitation and project management of the entire event
- ▶ Provision of team feedback, time for self analysis and linking learning outcomes back to the workplace
